

The Beautiful, Versatile Silk Square

A 36" square silk scarf is large yet lightweight, so you can tie it into a variety of pleasing shapes. Here are eight ways to get the most wear out of your beautiful scarf.

Shoulder Drape

1. Fold in half, corner to corner, to form a triangle.

2. Drape around shoulders.

3. Tie ends into a knot.

4. Turn scarf and drape so that ends lay over shoulder.

Asymmetrical

1. Fold from corner to opposite corner, forming a triangle.

2. Bring around neck, with one end hanging longer than the other.

3. Using the short end, tie a small knot around the long end.

4. Let scarf drape toward one shoulder and down in front.

Shoulder to Shoulder

1. Fold in half across the center, forming a rectangle.	2. Grasping the ends of the fold line, wrap around shoulders.	3. Make a small knot at the end of fold lines at one shoulder.	4. Let scarf drape in front and in back with knot at shoulder. Option: Cover the knot with a pin.
---	---	--	---

Oblong with Knot

1. Fold two of the opposite corners toward the center.	2. Continue folding toward the center until you form a long, narrow piece about 3" wide.	3. Bring scarf around neck and tie in front.	4. Let scarf drape down in front.
--	--	--	---

Man's Tie

1. Fold scarf in from opposite corners until you form a long, narrow piece about 3" wide.

2. Drape scarf around neck with one end hanging longer than the other. Loop long end around short end twice.

3. Bring long end up the back of the loop and then down through the first and second loops.

4. Tighten ends to form tie-like knot and let scarf drape down front.

Front Bow

1. Fold opposite ends together, forming a triangle.

2. Start tying into a bow.

3. Pull the ends of the bow almost all the way through the knot and tighten knot.

4. Turn bow to front.

Ascot

1. Grasp scarf slightly off center and also equidistant from the sides.

2. Hold onto that spot and tie into a tight knot.

3. Grasp the two opposite corners and fold scarf over with knot inside.

4. Drape around neck, tie in back, and tuck scarf into sweater or jacket.

Neck Knot

1. Fold scarf in from opposite corners until you form a long, narrow piece about 3" wide.

2. Place middle at front of neck and loop ends around back.

3. Bring ends around to the front and tie into a knot.

4. Let ends drape below front loop.